Personal Statement:

My name is Kyla Lujan. Softball has taught me several things including becoming mentally and physically stronger. Academics has become such a big part of my life in challenging myself both on and off the field. From staying on top of my grades, to being the best version of myself. A huge goal of mine is to further my education and my career in softball by playing at collegiate level. Softball has already offered me so many amazing opportunities and has connected me with fantastic coaches and players who I look up to as role models. I demonstrate my leadership skills on the field by supporting my teammates and showing my strong work ethic during practices, warmups, and games. I look forward to the opportunity's softball has brought and excited to see how much more I accomplish playing the game that I love.
